VFW Trinity County High School Senior $4000 Scholarship Award

VFW Post 6899 and Ladies Auxiliary of Trinity County, Texas pursue the dual mission of:

- Supporting the students of Trinity County, Texas in their efforts to pursue education excellence.
- Providing a scholarship to meet the financial needs of our students of Trinity County.

We are committed and dedicated to our young students from their freshman year through their senior year.

Scholarships are awards to students who excel in academic areas, activities or athletics or who have financial need.

- One scholarship grant is awarded to graduating seniors from Trinity, Groveton, Centerville, Apple Springs High Schools and home schooled seniors each year.
- $4000.00 is awarded annually directly to the student with the following requirements. (If money is available – we will help our students through grad school too).
  1. $500.00 each semester for eight consecutive semesters.
  2. Full-time student – 12 semester hours.
  3. Maintain a 2.4 GPA.
  4. After each semester the recipient must provide an official copy of their college grades to the scholarship committee. Failure to do this will result in forfeiture of their scholarship.
  5. Maintain his/her address to the scholarship committee.
- The scholarship grant is based on the judgment of the “scholarship committee” and availability of funds.
- A student who experiences a “hardship” can request an appearance before the scholarship committee and state their case. A ruling will be made within three working days.
